

Football Squad Ready For Fresno

Ticket Sales for "Anna Christie" Will Open Shortly

SEASON BOOKLETS NOT TO BE RELEASED FOR
YEAR'S PLAYS

New Charts for Seats Used

SPEECH ARTS DEPARTMENT
SPONSORS LARGEST SEASON

Tickets for "Anna Christie" will go on sale in the "Quad" Thursday, October 20th.

In view of the change in administrative plans regarding the production of plays this year the usual season books have not and will not be sold. Tickets, however, will be placed on sale shortly before each play is presented. This system should considerably increase the sale of seats, since so many people who really want to see the play will have no fear of getting a poor seat as they would have if all the best seats were sold in season books.

Starting Thursday, tickets will be sold in a booth in the quad and thenceforth until the last night of production, November 4th. A specially designed chart showing the seating arrangement in the Little Theatre will greatly facilitate choice of seats as one will immediately be able to see exactly the number and letter of the seat he wishes.

Miss Jenks and Mr. Gillis both urge that "ticket shopping" be done early as the best seats will undoubtedly go first, and perhaps most of the others. The committee in charge of the sale of tickets are: Carl Palmer, Jerry Green, Catherine Fisher, Beatrice Harris, Dorothy Vierra, Grace Murray, Marian Sagerty, Jack Scott.

These people will be more than willing to sell you a seat, or take your order for one, if you aren't already so equipped.

NOON RALLY FOR GRID TEAM BRINGS OUT HUGE CROWD

Coach Dud DeGroot and the State football squad were given a send-off for the Fresno-State football game Friday afternoon at Spartan field at a special rally sponsored by the Spartan Knights Wednesday noon in the quad.

The rally was held in conjunction with the noon dance, and was aided by the use of "The Crimson Crier," the loud speaker car used at the State football games.

DeGroot Speaks

In his "pep" talk Coach DeGroot stated that if the students would turn out for the games in proportion with the faculty, greater crowds would come out to the games.

He also stated that the students were cheating themselves when they didn't turn out for the games, because they were paying for them out of their student body dues.

Hubert Berry Is Named Chairman at Forum Meet

At the third meeting of the State College Forum, sponsored by the Speech Arts department, last Monday evening, Hubert Berry was elected permanent chairman for the new group.

Frank Hamilton, promising young Freshman, was elected publicity chairman for the organization.

Party Platforms

The party platforms of the leading political units are to be discussed and defended at the meeting of the Forum next Monday evening.

Political Rally

Under the sponsorship of this Forum, a political mass meeting is to be held in the Morris Dailey auditorium on November 1.

At this time leading speakers for the parties in California will hold the floor.

One Fresno Worry

Captain Bud Hubbard, whose inspiring play at end has pulled the Spartans out of many a tough spot. Hubbard will be a marked man in tomorrow's game.

Press Club Holds Election of Officers at Initial Meeting Tuesday

The San Jose State College Press Club held its first meeting Tuesday evening in the Times office.

Officers of the organization who were elected at the first meeting were: President, James Fitzgerald; vice president, Clarence Naas; and secretary-treasurer, Dorothy Deckman.

Meets Twice a Month

According to the constitution of the organization, adopted at that time, meetings are to be held the first and third Thursday of each month. At this time leading journalists of the Bay region will tell of their practical experience in the field of journalism.

Membership

Membership in the organization is limited to those who have either worked on the State College Times or La Torre.

FACULTY VOTES $5000 TO AID COMMUNITY CHEST DRIVE

The committee on the distribution of the appropriated funds from the voluntary cut that the faculty voted met last Monday night, October 17, and decided on the following places to use their money:

They decided to contribute $5,000 to the Community Chest, and to subscribe to the California Teachers Association, the National Education Association, and to several professional magazines. The balance of the fund is to be pro-rated on the same basis as given and returned to the entire faculty.

This contribution to the Community Chest is the first gesture on the part of San Jose State, and sets a good example to the students to get in and do their best during the Community Chest week here at State.

Co-Eds To Hold Annual Jinx on October 28

Weird withered witches, horrible hobgoblins, and ghastly ghouls, will cavort in the Women's Gym on the enchanted evening of Friday, October 28th.

The affair will be the Women's Jinx, to which every co-ed on the campus is cordially invited. A big break is being given the women of State, who, on this occasion may lose their more coy identities and don those of devils, bats, and clumsy clowns. Everyone attending must be masked. Her costume need not be Hallowe'enish; any sort of costume will be appropriate.

Marba Vansickle, general chairman, has planned with her committees for a full evening of fun, dancing, games, and a program.

A good time for women only is on schedule. Co-eds are requested to keep the date.

Second Home Game Promises To Be Closer Than First

NEW OFFENSIVE DRIVEN

LOCAL GRIDDEES NEED REST
AFTER GRUELLING GAME
WITH SACRAMENTO

By Steve Murdock

Rest and lots of it, has been the keynote of Coach Dud DeGroot's preparation for Friday's battle with Stan Borleske's Fresno State Bulldogs. Dud found it necessary to use more of his so-called "regulars" in defeating Sacramento than he had counted on, and, as a consequence, many of the Spartan mainstays have shown a decided lack of pep this week.

Monday and Tuesday practices consisted mainly of lengthy signal drills, with Wednesday only being devoted to offensive scrimmage and defensive work against Fresno plays as impersonated by third and fourth string men.

That DeGroot will start the same combination, with one exception, that saw most of the service against Pacific, seems imminent. George Embury, who's work has been outstanding in all three of the Spartan's games, will probably start at quarter in place of Griffith. Embury is the headiest field general on the squad in addition to being a triple threat man in his own right. Such a line-up would have Captain Hubbard and Baracchi at the ends; Buehler and Simoni at tackles; Hornbeck and Sandholt at guards; Whitaker at center; Embury at quarter; Shetanian and Dieu at halves; and Wool at full.

The only doubtful member of this line-up is Dee Shetanian, regular right halfback, who severely injured his shoulder in Tuesday's practice. Freddie Bennett will probably replace him in the starting line-up.

College Orchestra to Play on Theatre Circuit

The campus orchestra, directed by Paul and Hadley Cox, both State students, was successful in their try-out for the National Theatre Syndicate Monday evening.

According to the N. T. S. vaudeville circuit manager, the ten-piece band will perform in the American Theatre's of San Francisco, Sacramento, Modesto and San Jose within the next few weeks.

Several performances have been given on the campus recently by these rhythm vendors, and many future dates will ensue.

Let's Help Dr. MacQuarrie Make That Touchdown

San Jose State is hitting the line this week in an effort to do its part in helping the needy of this locality by subscribing to the Community Chest.

The faculty has already gone through the line for a huge yardage by doubling their contributions to the Chest in a time when they all have received salary cuts.

It now depends on the students to make those last few yards that is going to put the ball over old man depression's line.

This drive, under Frankie Covello, is slated to close tomorrow, and as yet many of the organizations have not given anything at all.

Of course we realize that very few of the students have any extra money, but as this is one of the big things that shows outsiders whether or not college is really a worthwhile enterprise. Individuals who are slated to be leaders in life should be those who are in back of all worthwhile projects, and this is the big opportunity for them to show that they are deserving.

The size of the gift is not important, but just the mere fact that you are willing to give is the test that is facing you.

Help State and Dr. MacQuarrie to win again.

Glee Club Make Plans for Year at First Meet

The Spartan Glee Club held its first dinner meeting in the home of Mrs. Matlock on 10th street. Several old members were invited, and what's more, showed up. Jerry Erwin, director of the club, told of plans for the coming year. President Jack Murdock then presented Mr. Geo. T. Matthews, founder of the organization, with a pin. This pin given by the club, was a token of appreciation for the untiring effort that Mr. Matthews has put forth during the time he was in charge of the club, a period of about nine years.

Spartan Knight Neophytes Given Oath Pledge at Last Meeting

The Spartan Knights held one of the most successful meetings of the year in their club rooms on last Tuesday, October 18th.

At this meeting the neophytes of the organization were given the oath and pledge. The following people were taken into the Spartan Knights for services to the college: Kay Lindsay, Ambrose Nichols, Frank Yearian, Perry Stratton, Roland Linn, Darrow Simoni, Dick Glycer, Clarence Naas and Elbert Eaton.

The outstanding feature of the meeting took place when "Dud" DeGroot and Neil Thomas, newly installed honorary members, gave the Knights speeches that rung with a sincere appreciation for what the organization was doing. A plea was made to sponsor a rally which was held in the "Quad" last Wednesday noon. As you all know this rally was an event which will long be remembered by the people that attended. It was the first real show of true enthusiasm for the team. More of these rallies will be sponsored by the Knights.

Industrial Democracy League Plans Future

Plans to get some such distinguished speaker as Lincoln Steffens for a meeting in the near future, were outlined at a gathering yesterday noon of the State chapter of the League for Industrial Democracy. The meeting was conducted by President Thurman Frick, who said that considerable interest in the league is being shown by local students and faculty members. He announced that future meetings will be held every Monday noon in room 1 of the Home-Making building.

Mrs. Lillian Gray Speaks to Art Majors

Mrs. Ruth W. Turner's discussion group of Art Majors Wednesday at three-thirty, had for its speaker, Mrs. Lillian Gray of the Educational department. Mrs. Gray had chosen for her topic, "Fine Arts and the Applied Art of Dressing." She discussed three aspects of the problem: planning a wardrobe, buying a wardrobe, and wearing one.

Over a hundred students attended the German picture, "Barcarole," presented last Tuesday evening at the Hester Theatre. This production was sponsored by the German students of the college.

Many lovers of German art, scenery, music, and language attended the picture, and acclaimed it one of the finest ever presented in San Jose. From time to time pictures of different nationalities, sponsored by the Language department have been presented at local theatres, but "Barcarole" in its charm and simplicity seems to have won the greatest acclaim of San Jose audiences.

Skylight Club Holds Luncheon on Monday

On Monday, October 24, the Skyline Club is holding a luncheon in Room 1 of the Art building. All members are urged to attend. There will be a special speaker from the Speech Arts department. The entire program will be of interest to every member. The committee in charge includes Mac Nelson, Priscilla Bridgely, and Dorothy Knudsen. This is the second social affair of the club this quarter, and it is expected to be as huge a success as was the first.

Japanese Club's Next Meeting on Friday

President John Kitazaki announces the bi-weekly meeting of the Japanese Student Club for Friday, October 21st, at 12:15, in Room 3 of the Home-Making building. Because many items of interest are to be considered, each cabinet and all club members are urged to attend. To facilitate promptness of meeting, eating lunch together in Room 3 is being planned.

Language Dept. Members Meet in Informal Group

Wednesday evening, October 19, members of the Modern Language department met at a charmingly informal party at the home of Mr. L. Newby in honor of the birthday of one of its faculty members—Miss Elizabeth Jaderquist.

Miss Jaderquist is one of the new members of the San Jose State faculty and it was a delightful welcoming note extended by the faculty of her department.

Dean of Paris Grammatic Teachers Pulls Bad "Boner" in Book

Monsieur Abel Hermant, of the French Academy of Paris, is very much on the well-known spot. For years M. Hermant has been calling down the wrath of heaven upon the corruption of language as spoken and written in France, and alternating his thunderings with pleas to the academy to publish a standard for the enlightenment of the Third Estate.

Finally the august body gave in. The rumor circulated that M. Hermant was hard at work on the masterpiece. The golden silence of the grammarian did not check this flow of advance publicity which caused the book to be a best seller when it did appear. U. Hermant preserved his modest muteness when the flood of congratulations poured in.

Then the storm broke. The new grammar was found to possess the grossest errors. Investigation proved that instead of M. Hermant, an obscure high school has written it. But that does not save him now, for, as he enjoyed the credit of the perspective book, he now is the butt of the notoriety of the blame.

Tau Mu Delta Holds Reception at Thompson's

Tau Mu Delta, honorary women's music sorority, held a rush reception at the home of Miss Maureen Thompson at the Villa Saroni Apartments in San Jose, Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Refreshments were served at 11 to those present.

The officers of the society include the Misses Jessie Sterling, president; Alice Dixon, vice president; Dorothy Fruhling, secretary; Jean Sterling, treasurer; and Pauline Connor, historian and reporter.

Plan to Control Cuts Dropped by Reg.'s Office

The proposed plan of the Registrar's Office to eliminate all cuts due to an reasons other than illness has been dropped. The number of cuts is now left entirely up to the teacher's discretion; however, after three absences a leave of absence must be filed in the Registrar's Office.

Dr. Sylvester Is Guest Speaker at Philosophy Dinner

IS SECOND MEETING OF GROUP HEADED BY ROBINSON

"As a man thinketh, so is he... as a man seeth, so is his world." This was the pragmatic philosophy presented by Dr. Sylvester of the Methodist Church to the college philosophy group Monday evening at the Hotel Italia.

A few members of the group enjoyed an abundant Italian dinner which was followed by Dr. Sylvester's comprehensive high-lights on idealistic philosophy.

"Life is an affair of the affluities," says Dr. Sylvester. This opened the general discussion which continued through the evening.

Proctor and Gamble Soap Exhibition Displayed in Art Dept.

Proctor and Gamble's famous soap exhibition is now being shown in the glass cases at the entrance to the Art department. The exhibition consists of prize winning entries in the contest the soap company sponsored recently for art work sculptured entirely in soap. The models are beautifully done, showing genuine artistic ability in their delicate workmanship. Among the most striking of the exhibits, is one titled "Man and Horse," whose classic lines won second prize; a lifelike model of Gandhi, and a lovely little figure called "Pegasus."

The exhibition is accompanied by the tools necessary for the sculpturing in soap and the steps in working out a figure from a plain cake of ivory soap.

Reception Will Be Given for Home-Making Dept.

FORMAL AFFAIR WILL BE GIVEN BY MEMBERS OF FACULTY

Holding the annual home-making reception Thursday evening, October 20, at 8 o'clock, in Room 1 of the Home-Making building, the Home-Making faculty are entertaining all Home-Making students, including majors, minors, Smith Hughes, technical, and special students.

The affair is to be formal, but formal dress is not required, according to Miss Helen Mignon head of the Home-Making department.

The various Home-Making classes will have charge of the details of the evening, furnishing the decorations, entertainment and refreshments.

Alumni Ex-Board Holds Meeting to Discuss Future Plans

Preceded by a dinner at the college cafeteria at 5:45 o'clock Monday, the executive committee of the Alumni Association held a business meeting to decide plans for the fall. The meetings of the county alumni clubs at the institutes in November and December were discussed, and plans for increasing the size of the association through a series of bulletins and membership appeals were made.

Mr. Wilfred Richardson, of the chemistry department, is the president of the executive committee. He has made extensive plans for developing the organization. At the present time, out of approximately 11,000 graduates of San Jose State, 5,000 are active members of the alumni association.

Prospects Still Dark for Science Bldg. Equipment

DEPARTMENT PREVIOUSLY WAS PROMISED ALL NEEDED FUNDS

Unless the next session of the legislature appropriates some money for the new science building, San Jose State's latest addition will not be used because of the lack of equipment.

Dr. P. Victor Peterson, head of the science department, said recently: "San Jose State College will have an empty building on its hands if an additional $130,000 is not forthcoming to furnish the $220,000 science wing."

Local authorities had been assured by state officials that an appropriation for furnishings would be forthcoming with the building's completion.

The work on the building will be completed by January 1, but will probably remain empty for six to nine months awaiting the needed sum, which, if appropriated, will not be available until July 1, 1933.

Old equipment is in such a condition that it cannot be removed.

Kersey Complimented for Opposition Against Suzzalo Report

Vierling Kersey, California's superintendent of instruction, who opposed the transfer of state teachers' colleges control to the University of California, was commended on his action, at the annual convention of city, county and district school heads held at San Francisco Wednesday.

The convention voted against the survey's recommendation that expenses of teachers colleges and university lower divisions be met from county rather than state funds.

School systems must be subject to continuous housecleaning from within—not from without—Frank A. Bouelle, superintendent of the Los Angeles city schools, declared in an address before the superintendents' section.

He pointed out that reorganization and readjustment of school budgets and educational programs must be going on at all times, not just during periods of economic upheaval.

The next meeting will be a week from Thursday, at four o'clock in room 1 of the Home-Making building, and all interested in Christian Science are cordially invited to attend.

State College Student Tells About Pants

Dear Cigarette Butter: We, (3 State boys) were en route from Paly, Monday a. m., when we saw a beautiful damsel on the hi-way, alongside her limousine, looking terribly perturbed, and of course being gallant Staters we had to turn 'round and offer assistance.

After procuring gas for the young lady, imagine our chagrin when she offered a $20 bill to change, had just driven her husband to work, and had little Oswald in the back of the car. Now you know why I no longer wear short pants.

Freshman Luncheon Club Fashion Show Is Greatly Enjoyed

PRUSSIA'S FURNISHES MANY NEW STYLES FOR DISPLAY

Perfect, gorgeous, lovely, divine! These were only a few of the exclamations heard with reference to the charming creations shown Tuesday noon at the Freshmen Luncheon Club Fashion Show.

Prussia's kindly furnished the latest in Fall fashions. There was a lot of sleeve interest, puffy sleeves, tight to the elbow and then lots of superfluous but attractive goods on up to the shoulder. They were much like the sleeves picture in grandmother's family album, only these new ones are so much more comfortable and becoming. Then there were buttons, buttons and more buttons—big wooden buttons, little drop buttons, clever modernistic buttons. Collars were an important feature too. There were many wide ones and the new throw type.

Of course there is no use repeating that the lines were all slenderizing, because they are just that way this year. The horizontal line seems to predominate only to give the desired shoulder width.

Miss Ruth Montgomery helped the girls to select the dresses modeled. There was also an attractive display of lingerie and shoes shown through the courtesy of Hale Brothers.

General Elementary Group Hold Extra-Curricular Activity Meeting

All majors and minors in General Elementary education, who are particularly interested in extra-curricular activities such as Art, Music, Physical Education, Abnormal Psychology, Dramatics, and Library work are invited to attend the next meeting of this extra-curricular group on the evening of November third, and to join one of the sections. Art is the topic chosen for this next meeting and a short talk will be given by someone of importance in that field, followed by a "round table" discussion.

The first meeting of this newly organized group, which is under the leadership of Mrs. Elizabeth Walsh, was called to order by Chairman Madeline Chargin last Wednesday evening and plans were formulated for the quarter. Other activities beside those mentioned above will be added to the group's program when sufficient interest is shown in them.

Swede Righter Picks State To Win F.W.C

Nevada Favored to Defeat Cal Aggies in Conference Tilt

SAN JOSE--FRESNO STATE TILT WILL BE CRUCIAL

Fresno State at San Jose.
Cal Aggie vs. Nevada.
Pacific--No game.
Chico State--No game.

This is a big week-end in the Far Western Conference. Nevada is making its debut, taking on the Cal Aggies at Reno Saturday afternoon. Fresno and San Jose State meeting in a crucial game Friday.

Both games are important and deciding factors in the Conference race. If San Jose dumps the Fresno Bulldogs it will just about put Fresno out of the running as the Cal Aggies knocked them over two weeks ago; if Fresno wins the game it will not lower the Spartan chances to any great extent.

The same situation occurs with the Cal Aggie-Pacific game. The Aggies having defeated Fresno State and losing to College of Pacific cannot afford to lose the Nevada game. With one victory to their credit Aggies rate a little higher than Fresno. Nevada can afford to lose the game, but have no intention of doing such.

Coming to San Jose with everything to gain and nothing to lose the game out at Spartan field will be all that a football game should be. Coming with a line-plunging fool--Jack Horner; a great kicker in "Slim" Mathieson; and a smart field general and tricky ball packer in their team captain--Walt Glenn, Coach Stan Borleske will throw all his power at the local team.

Nevada Favored

"Brick" Mitchell's Nevadans are heavy favorites in their tussle with the Aggies. When Nevada held the University of Utah to a 6 to 6 tie two weeks ago they gained themselves a fine reputation. Nevada hasn't lost a game this season. The Aggies, led by Louis DeMartini, will be out to take the Wolves. Their 30 to 0 defeat at the hands of Pacific did them a lot of good.

Chico Rests Before S. J. Game

Chico State, with three defeats and only one victory to their credit, are resting this week-end. They take on San Jose next week. All these teams are taking on breather or byes before playing the Spartans.

Pacific, taking on Fresno State next week, are taking things easy this Saturday. The coaching staff and team will probably be seen in the Phelan field stands Friday afternoon scouting Fresno State.

STOLEN

Dario Simoni, one of DeGroot's stars, reports that someone stole his 1930 Model Ford Sport Roadster last Tuesday evening from the Seventh street entrance of the college.

The car is black with yellow wire wheels, and has a Flying A tire cover.

The license number is 311-3023.

Spartan Spasms

By Murdock and Bishop

Sammy Filice, who showed up so well as a ball-carrier again; San Francisco State, has been retarded of late by a bad ankle. He ought to be ready to go against Chico if he doesn't get in Friday. Watch him when he does!

"Si" Simoni and Mel Hornbeck mixed their signals up in Tuesday's practice and collided quite forcibly when pulling out of the line; (and was Mel's face red?) (P. S. His neck was stiff too). Simoni, being a very hardy gentleman, was uninjured.

A lad by the name of Shimm, who cavorts for Stan Borleske's invading Bulldogs is a weight-lifter of note performing in that capacity for the Los Angeles Athletic Club.

San Jose, with the best line in its history, goes up against a line Friday wherein each Spartan will be outweighed 15 to 20 pounds. It will be skill vs. brawn. We shall see.

Delos Wolfe, getting his first real chance, was the "find" of the Sacramento game. Offensively, his blocking and ball packing was above reproach, while his alert defensive work was directly responsible for the Spartan's second touchdown.

Sacramento failed to complete a single forward pass which is a tribute to something or other.

Two members of Fresno's Far Western Conference championship and record holding mile relay team cavort in their regular backfield, namely, Messrs. Horner and Rambo, fullback and right half, respectively.

We ballyhooped Sacramento mightily last week, and they didn't turn out to be such a hot aggregation, but there is no mistaking this Fresno outfit. The game is beyond a doubt the "crucial" make-or-break part of the Spartan schedule. Fresno is at the tail end of the conference, and State is at the top by the virtue of one win. The Bulldogs are out for blood with their noses pointed toward that conference championship. With a line averaging 205 pounds from tackle to tackle, they bid fare to make good in spite of their defeat by the Aggies.

San Jose State is one of the three undefeated and untied collegiate teams on the Pacific Coast at the present writing. The other two are U. S. C. and Stanford. One of those will be eliminated this Saturday, giving the Spartans an added incentive as they go into battle with Fresno's Bulldog on Friday. Should San Jose win, they would be one of the TWO undefeated and untied teams on the Coast and should the Palo Alto struggle be a tie, they would be the ONLY undefeated and untied eleven. But there are too many "shoulds" in such a supposition.

'Dee' Wolfe - - in Sheeps Clothing

Delos Wolfe is the latest "find" of Coach DeGroot. Last week against Sacramento J. C., Wolfe played bang-up football. Tomorrow Wolfe will try to find some holes in the Bulldog line.

FRESNO DETERMINED TO DEFEAT SPARTANS TOMORROW

The loss of their first conference game to the Cal Aggies will bring the Fresno State Bulldogs to San Jose with a determination that will take a fighting team to stop.

Captain Walt Glenn, veteran quarterback, will lead a powerful backfield behind a line that will average nearly 200 pounds per man. Practically all are veterans and are in mid-season shape, having played four games to date.

Though they have lost two out of four games this season, the Bulldogs are much stronger than the respective scores indicate and will give any team a battle which will be remembered. Their victory over San Francisco State last week by the score of 32-13 proves they have scoring power even though the bay team is not exceptionally strong. They lost to the West Coast Army, 7-6, and won from the San Diego Marines in their initial contest, 12-0.

Coach Stan Borleske, who has been at Fresno since 1929, produced a championship team in 1930, and entered in the four-way tie for the conference title last year. This impressive record may not indicate anything unless we consider the material he has left from these two teams, which is plenty.

They are working this week on an offense which they figure will baffle the Spartans.

DUD DE GROOT SPEAKS TO JUNIOR CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Dud DeGroot, head coach at San Jose State College, and Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie, president of the college, with Clipper Smith and the Rev. Joseph R. Crowley, S. J., of the Santa Clara University were the speakers at the last meeting of the Junior Chamber of Commerce held at the Hotel de Anza.

In speaking, DeGroot said: "It is your school and wherever its teams go, the name of your city goes with them. Whether it is favorable or unfavorable advertising depends entirely upon the support that San Joseans give it."

Coaches Hubbard, Blesh, and Illia were introduced at the conclusion of DeGroot's speech.

Pacific Coach Says San Jose Team to Watch This Season

NEW COACH IS RESPONSIBLE FOR S. J. SPARTANS REJUVENATION

"It may be so, but it sounds so very queer," is the feeling with which San Jose State's loyal grid team supporters received the announcement of Coach Swede Righter of Pacific in the Mercury Herald yesterday to the effect "that the Spartans should win the Far Western Conference with ease."

Sees Victory

He, Righter, believes San Jose may encounter some trouble with Nevada, but since Nevada is playing California the week before things look fine for the Spartans.

"San Jose should dispose of Fresno Friday after a hard struggle. The Raisin city boys ordinarily play good games against Nevada and Pacific but make mediocre showing against Chico, San Jose and the Aggies. San Jose disposed of Sacramento Junior College in easy fashion using the second team extensively."

Interviews with several members of the local State eleven, however, brought out the belief that other coaches are employing Dud DeGroot's method of strategy and that nothing would please the Stocktonians more than to see San Jose State lose to Fresno on Friday, through a severe case of over confidence. The Spartan warriors, having already seen the effect of long and loud newspaper praise on the forementioned "Tigers," promise never to take any stock in such articles.

Now, bring on Fresno.

Local Merchant Will Give Prize to Student Picking Football Scores

It looks like "ole man depression" is on his way from San Jose State at last, at least as far as men's clothing is concerned, for Leon Jacobs, prominent local clothier, is offering a piece of excellent merchandise each week to those interested in football dope sheets.

Here's the way to win a brand new imported silk cravat absolutely free. Figure out as near as you can the scores of the following games and put the results in a box in the Times office marked "Football Dope Sheets."

The scores and the winner will be published on Monday and an order on the store given the winner. Next week it may be a shirt or a hat.

Get your sheet in before the Fresno game Friday.
